

Virginia Academy of School Psychologists

Fall 2022 Southwest Regional Workshop

11/16/2022

Abingdon, Virginia

TOPICS:

Best Practices in Assessment of “More Challenging” students

Workshop Description:

Lead by T/TAC’s Natalie Mey, SSP, NCSP and Kathleen Wright, MS, CCC-SLP

Natalie Mey has worked as a school psychologist in Tazewell and Montgomery County Public Schools in Virginia. She also served as the division level Section 504 Coordinator for Montgomery County Public Schools. Her work at T/TAC is focused on social, emotional, and behavioral supports as well as Section 504. Natalie received a BA in Biopsychology from Monmouth College and a Specialist in School Psychology (SSP) degree from Western Illinois University.

Kathleen is a certified Speech Language Pathologist with over 25 years of experience serving students with diverse backgrounds from ages 2 to 22 in the public school setting. She has collaborated with school based teams to develop and implement programs for preschool students and students with ASD. An area of interest and focus has been supporting programs for students using augmentative and alternative communication systems. Kathleen received a M.S. in Communication Sciences and Disorders and a M.S. in Educational Leadership, both from Radford University. She has also earned a Certificate in Autism Studies from Radford University.

Special Topics in School Psychology

Workshop Description:

This workshop will be a moderated discussion on various topics raised by our group. Several of us felt that time to problem solve, brainstorm, and listen to ideas was a need. Guest speakers have also been invited to augment the discussion. The topics to this point include: school psychology shortage, NASP exposure project, changing roles and service delivery models, school safety, and addressing mental health needs. If you have other topics to discuss, please email: micheletgamble@gmail.com
